

FIVE ROCKS OF REVELATION

I STONE

"The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace" (Psalm 29:11).

Today the Lord wants to release movement on this earth. He is not making any institutions, structures or prayer houses. The Lord wants to release movement, and this requires prophetic, apostolic fathers.

A word about warriors

We touched Saint Martin, a warrior who took off half of his robe and gave it to a beggar. We understand that this is a prophetic, apostolic father for today, a warrior.

Jesus taught a lot about soldiers. In the Acts of the Apostles, soldiers became doors for the Gentiles. Paul ministered to a soldier, a centurion, a man of Macedonia in his house and baptized his household. We see that there was a movement in the warriors' midst. Also, soldiers received a word from John the Baptist. Prophets and Apostles have always preached to soldiers, and today we must preach to soldiers, turn our attention to the military. Warriors must receive God's Word.

A word about the striving seekers

It is very important to pay attention to those seekers. Because in those seekers who remained in nations and countries there is spirit of life, spirit of creativity. They seek to release their inner potential as sons of their own people. But the church rejected them. Jesus said, "He who is not against us is for us," but the church made them enemies. He said: "... you are not far from the Kingdom," but the church removed them away from the Kingdom. We have set them against ourselves. Thus, the church has limited itself from the creative potential that the peoples of the world need today. The Church secretly "visits" them in order to sometimes receive food from there, which you don't have to hide - these people can also serve our Lord as secret or open disciples.

We shouldn't have fear. Because there is Divine equalization - whoever gathered little had no shortage. Perhaps you will say that you don't have that education, that sagacity, that intelligence to sense whom you should listen to. We don't send all people to study arts, painting or literature. But many of the greatest authors were seekers who sought the Lord in their own way, outside the church format. And if you see why they didn't stay in church, although many of them were church people, such as Johann S. Bach, -often case the church represented a sect in their vast mind. People of such spirit that we are talking about today as striving seekers, could not fit in small sects with the narrow thinking of pastors and leaders who are more like a psychiatrist's office than the church of the Living God.

What then is left for people, who didn't make it to get an education, who have no gifts of vast intellect? - Be under the Mantle! Scripture speaks of this Divine equalization: whoever gathered little had no shortage, and whoever gathered a lot had no extra. Today we can share this Divine equalization and move, because the church is the source that is called to give the best, high-quality sublime education to this world. It is supposed to reveal the true picture of the world as it really is, and not as historians or politicians taught us. Many atheists out of their number, who promoted their views, turned to God at the end of their lives.

Last year we received five stones of revelation. This season I want to give an introduction into the prophetic message.

This Word is not just for the year 2021; this Word is for the season. For God, a year isn't 365 days, for Him "one day is like a thousand years, but a thousand years is like one day." And also the Lord has a layering of seasons. Just as clouds have no specific boundaries, they overlap, so one season succeeds another. God makes a smooth transition of times.

The Truth of the Prophetic Word

The truth of the prophetic Word reads like this: "Those slain by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger, for these pine away, stricken for lack of the fruits of the field" (Lamentations 4:9). Better to get wounded by the prophetic sword of the Word. These people will be better off than those who don't receive a heavy Word of the Lord.

Today, there is a lot of "Prophetic Word for 2021" in media resources. Everyone strives to speak and predict. Most say “everything will be fine,” especially with money, prosperity, and a nice life on earth. We would better expose ourselves to the sword of God’s Word, and we will not “splice affairs”, making things meet, so that the Word would be pleasant to us. Let us open up to this sword in order to be happier and not to die of hunger.

The truth of the Word sounds like this: “O My people! Remember now what Balak, king of Moab, counseled, and what Balaam, the son of Beor, answered him, and what happened from Sittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteousness of the Lord. “With what shall I come before the Lord and bow myself before the High God? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, with one year old calves? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, ten thousands rivers of oil? Shall I give him my firstborn for my transgression, and the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He has shown you, O man, what is good, and what does the Lord require of you but to do justly, to love mercy and to walk humbly before your God. The voice of the Lord cries to the city - wisdom shall see Your name: “Hear the rod! Who has appointed it” (Micah 6: 5-9).

Today I listen to many prophets, but I cannot say anything about their prophecies. In fact, I cannot even listen to their messages to the end. When a prophetic word like that comes, I understand that this is just a sermon, the preacher is speaking things, which he feels. There may be a seed of prophecy there, but there may not. This is not pure prophecy, it is just a sermon.

The most powerful Word comes from within.

That is why, I so much value the Russian prophets of the former Soviet Union period, who suffered for the Gospel. They released the Word from within their womb. When the “iron curtain fell,” they knew what God was speaking to them, they knew “how long” this would last. This is very valuable.

The time is "swirling", it "thickens", we will never see the world as before. If we look at how the predictions moved in the year 2020 and now in 2021, we will see that the prophets are acting more cautiously, many of them urge to “wait it out”: “The coronavirus will soon pass. Wait, wait! ”

Then came the second wave of the virus, and they began to urge to wait it out too. But the world has changed. Humanity has it clear that something has happened that will never take us all to the former lifestyle. A complete change of the paradigm of understanding has come.

Kingdoms of the world

The books of the prophets and the book of Revelation clearly say that all kingdoms that rise at one or another time in history have faces of beasts. None of them was the kingdom of the lamb or the kingdom of the dove, they all had images of terrible beasts, moreover, the images were collective: the legs of a bear, the head of a leopard, the claws of a predator, horns that eat up other horns. These images appeared in the vision of the prophet, but the point is not in the prophet, but in the Holy Spirit, Who revealed to them that these kingdoms are, in fact, of beasts.

Daniel says: "The ten horns are ten kings who shall arise from this kingdom, and another shall rise after them; he shall be different from the first ones, and shall subdue three kings. He shall speak pompous words against the Most High, shall persecute the saints of the Most High; and shall intend to change(cancel) festive times and law. Then the saints shall be given into his hand for a time and times and half a time"(Daniel 7: 24-25).

Where do you not see the festive times and the law canceled today? - You see this phenomenon everywhere! Christians can't celebrate even in the countries most open to the Gospel. Israel, whose life is built on the festivals, cannot gather for them. The Word says that the beast did this, one of his horns: "they shall be given into his hand for a time and times and half a time." The latter times carry the nature of beasts.

"And the last beast arose...". The last kingdom will devour the whole earth, all of the earth shall be trampled, and there will certainly be a battle against the saints.

Watch and observe. You will see the fulfillment of the apocalypse. And this will surely affect the saints. A battle against the saints shall begin: their gatherings, festive times, festive laws will be canceled.

Cities of Cain

I want to ask you: "What do you see today?" Look at the cities of Cain. Cain is the first man on earth born of a man and a woman. Cain is the first man and the first manslayer, who killed his own brother. When the Lord put a seal on him, giving him a chance to repent, he could not, and the Lord drove him out from His face, putting a seal on him.

Today, instead of the seal of the living God that the saints receive, there are those who carry the seal of Cain. Cain goes away and begins to live away from the Lord, and his desire is to be happy without God. We can watch those trends today. Throughout the history of mankind, a whole cluster of philosophies and ideologies has formed, aimed at a single goal: how to be happy without God.

Cain wouldn't want the thresholds of the house of God to return to God and say: "Father, I can't live without You. I will stay here, right next to the line where the Angel is, guarding the way to the tree of life!" There was a clear line where one could either get into death or could live if Cain had stayed by this line. He would be like that thief on the cross who was saved at the last moment of his life. The Lord would have taken him to Himself.

But Cain left and began to learn how to be "happy" without God. Many people today say they are "happy" without God. Sons of Cain. You are walking through the desert and suddenly you see a city shining with night lights, bonfires, watchmen stand on the walls, music sounds, because Cain made musical instruments. He spent his time not just getting drunk, he made instruments, he was an artist, he was a musician. You can't make instruments if you can't play. And there is Cain making instruments, beautiful music is sounding, lights of the big city are shining. You come to this city, which has laws, has its own constitution, its own statutes, it has its own gentlemen, nobles, the mayor's office.

Cain built such cities. What kind of laws are there in them? - The laws of Cain. Was there a democracy there or a monarchy? Most likely a monarchy ... What would you like it to be there? - There is no difference! Because there is no guarantor of justice in this city or country, because they have rejected God!

Our world is the same kind of Cain city with wicked people and liars. Who will commit himself for the battle with the godless instead of his own prosperity?! Who will lay down his soul for the law, instead of his own well-being?! Do you mean there can be justice in a godless society? - It will never be! Cain continues to build his kingdom. Cain continues to rule over his cities.

Therefore we have to quit the delusion that there is light in this world outside of Christ, there is some kind of justice outside of Jesus. This is the big city of Cain. If there is a subtle system of some kind of mutual benefit, then it is based on lies.

I speak, as a prophet, from the Bible, and I see how the world works. It makes no difference whether a monarchical or a democratic form of government is before us. We will not argue. Churchill, one of the world's greatest politicians, said that any agreement at any level could be violated. Even we today take ground on some kind of agreement, instead of being established in the Word of God.

Therefore, consider the nature of the kingdoms as that of the beasts, and things will get clear to you. This is the way God's prophets saw this world. Some said: "This is the time of the leopard." And others: "This is the time of the leopard with bear paws." It made it easier for the prophets, because the whole world is the kingdom of Cain. These are the cities that have become Sodom and Gomorrah - places, where they already wanted to rape the Angels, where the whole city gathered at the door to do such an evil to the Angels - can there be anything good there?

No country is better than other countries. But today we are talking about us, we are the Church of the Lord. We are not just Russian church, we are the Church of this generation. I am a believer and want to be "the voice of the one crying in the desert." I want God's Word to always sound in this Church - free and independent. So did Savonarola, so did John the Baptist, so did Jesus, so did the Apostles. The national anthems were not sung in their meetings; the Word was heard in their meetings.

This voice will be leaving the planet more and more. We must keep up this voice! Do not lower the bar, do not loosen your grip, hold on to what is given tightly, because if we lose our voice, then we lose sight, we lose hearing, we lose strength and we may lose our salvation.

This is the first stone. Understand that the nature of this world is always a beast, think about it, seek.

No country, no nation is better than others. All will suffer fair judgments before the Creator. "Behold, I am sending My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me, and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to the temple, even the Messenger of His covenant, in whom you delight. Behold, He is coming, says the Lord of hosts" (Malachi 3:1).

This day, which is hard to know, will be before God sits to purge the priesthood.

True Priesthood

Today, the Lord is preparing the priesthood of true Apostles and prophets, shepherds after His own heart. He will "purge" the Body of Christ. There are already prophets who are not afraid to repent for their false prophecies, but they are very few. Their promises with the stadiums of repentant people, with their lies, God will shake and put to shame. So says the Scripture that a third of Levi will remain, and two-thirds must fall.

The Lord today is cleansing and purging His priesthood as gold and silver. If you see yourself unpleasing, unworthy - hurry up, put your life in order, because the Lord will get to you, and not a single priest who has been raised by God will go through this melting down. All priests will go through the fire. It's a matter of time.

Why is God doing this? - To cleanse the offering. So that our offering doesn't go up with a flow of dirt, so that our praise in churches doesn't rise up with hypocrisy and slyness, but so that it's pure and holy. He says: "He will sit as a refiner and a purifier of silver, and He will purify the sons of Levi and purge them as gold and like silver, that they may offer to the Lord an offering in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord, as in the days of old and as in the former years" (Malachi 3: 3-4).

God doesn't want to accept "rotten" sacrifices. He will cleanse from impure magical practices. He will judge sorcerers and adulterers. He will convict those who make false vows.

Today there are a lot of "sorcerers" in the Body. Sorcery with prophecy, sorcery with healings, sorcery with the practice of the gifts of the Spirit. The Lord says about them: "sorcerers." Poor quality, but sorcerers. He says: "And I will come near you for judgment: and I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, against adulterers, against perjurers, against those who exploit wage earners and widows, and orphans, and against those who turn away an alien - because they do not fear Me, says the Lord of hosts" (Malachi 3:5). It will be because it is the Word.

His love will keep the remnant. He says that the remnant is preserved because He Himself never changes: "For I am the Lord, I do not change; therefore you are not consumed, O sons of Jacob" (Malachi 3:6).

We've taken only the first stone. In fact, it is not easy, it is very difficult, it is a lot. That vision, the picture that is presented and is being released today, is given to us in order to understand the picture of the world and what God is doing and where He is leading us.

This is an amazing time, I am very happy today. This Word comes neither from science nor from awareness, it comes from the calling and faithfulness to the Way. May God release victory over this season with His radiant Mantle of Christ!

II STONE

Today is the time to believe. The Lord said: "Believe Me ...". Don't believe politicians, don't believe occultists, don't believe man, but - "believe Me." What a beauty! Jesus said, "Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me, or else believe Me for the sakes of the works themselves" (John 14:11). "Truly I say to you that he who believes in Me will never thirst ..." (John 6:35).

Believe Jesus

The greatest need in the world today is to believe Jesus. Regardless of what we see with our physical eyes, we need to believe Jesus and look with the eyes of faith. There comes a spiritual squint, blurring, when we listen to what the world is saying, while Jesus says a different thing. There is such an expression in Russian - "I don't believe my eyes." So are we—we need to believe not our eyes, but Jesus.

There are forces that want to shape the kind of thinking in us that they want, this is especially evident in the media space. A lot of information pouring from a variety of sources makes us believe in the wrong things. But the Lord says, "Believe Me."

Therefore, an urgency of personal faith will be rising. Only the kind of faith in Jesus will endure, which brings new prayer, new great works, miracles and power of the faithful saints. Jesus Himself promises to do His work through us, through the faithful ones.

Visitation of Israel

"The days of punishment have come, the days of recompense have come; Israel knows! The prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is insane because of the greatness of your iniquity and great enmity. The watchman of Ephraim is with my God, but the prophet is a fowler's snare in all his ways - enmity in the house of his God. They are deeply corrupted as in the days of Gibeah; He will remember their iniquity - He will punish their sins. I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstfruits on the fig tree in its first season. But they went to Baal Peor and separated themselves to that shame; they became an abomination like the thing they loved" (Hosea 9:7-10).

I believe these will be the days of visitation for Israel, days of recompense for idolatry. Israel, too, has to understand how foolish a false prophet and a foreseer is. Unfortunately, even in the Messianic churches, there is little to boast about the knowledge, power and glory of achievement... But the Lord wants to raise an Apostolic Church. Although now is the time of the Gentiles, Israel is to manifest glory. The days of visitation for Israel are still ahead, and so is the recompense for idolatry.

Israel has to understand how foolish a false prophet and a foreseer is.

Who is talking about mission today? What about preaching in the nations? What are Israel and the church doing with a mission in the nations? There have been many revelations for 2021 - dozens of pastors have prophesied. But we don't hear a single sermon about Mission and what we owe to the nations. This stirs anger and frustration. "All the men of your confederacy shall force you to the border; the men at peace with you shall deceive you and prevail against you. Those who eat your bread shall lay a trap for you. No one is aware of it" (Obadiah 1:7).

True and false vine

The false vine will be put to shame. The false vine, which calls itself "the church" and plays with the government, flirts with wickedness and with the world, - will be put to shame. The Lord says: "Will I not even destroy the wise in Edom and understanding from the mountains of Esau?"

Judgments will come from the men of their confederacy, who were at peace with the harlot, they will come for their unfaithfulness to God. We will see judgments over what is called the church. Today I do not call everyone "the church", I call it "Christian communities". I do not call it the Body of Christ, because the Body of Christ is invincible.

Our ministry is measured by how strong our disciples are. If the disciples are not raised, we will not endure - it is like a flashing star: it lit up and fell down. Nobody knows what her name was, she just disappeared. Whatever ministry you do today, if you don't leave a legacy after yourself, then there is no sense in it. Therefore, how strong our disciples, our children, our spiritual sons and daughters are - so much the strength and glory of our ministry is evaluated.

III STONE

I won't fight for the truth of the next revelation, but I will release it the way it has been revealed. A prophet may be under pressure when he is expected to prophesy. There is, as it were, an unspoken demand - "everyone is doing this, so you have to do it." But it is easy for many to speak, because they don't need to be a prophet - to see and speak things that are clear to everyone anyway. And sometimes prophets speak only because they have a certain desire of their hearts for things to be a certain way, or because there is a mystical experience, a sensation that this could be a Word from the Lord.

Prophet of God

All these things are traps. I think that the Word is always connected with the prophet. When we think about prophecies, we will definitely mention the name of a person and his country, because he will have to hold an account for the words, for the prophecy.

A prophet is a friend of God, and the Word that he releases comes from him, he stands for it, he is joined with him. "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth" (John 1:14).

A prophet can just talk about God or any topic, and he will speak the way God sees it. All this will be a prophecy. If I were given a choice - gift or depth, I would choose depth. Because it is written: "Out of the depths I have cried to You, O Lord!"

The second thing that made me free is fear of making a mistake. If you claim that the Lord speaks to you, and you release the message, then you will be held accountable for what was said. You speak the Word as a man of God. And there is no need for being pathetic that we all walk on the edge like this, along the "thin thread of prophetic ministry," and from this troubles come.

I will share what is in my heart. I believe this Word is based on the Scriptures, on revelation, on the spirit of the revealed Word.

Exposing the lawless one

Today we come to a point where the lawless one is being revealed more and more. We see that this lawless one is not just one person, because John also said that we live where there are many antichrists.

This lawless one will be revealed in lawless people, in those who hate Christ. The Scripture says that an apogee will come when he is revealed. Jesus Christ will consume with the Breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming, the one "whose coming is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs and lying wonders, and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish because they did not receive the love of the truth that they might be saved (2 Thessalonians 2:9).

It will be a battle with Satan himself.

I remember one revelation, it came up sharp today again. Once in a dream I saw myself in a boxing ring, and there was an opponent with me on the ring - a big Satan. It was Satan himself, not a demon or some kind of antichrist. It was the devil himself - huge, black, hairy and very strong. He stood and looked down at me. I looked into his eyes, they were full of hatred, and I realized that he was just made to kill me. He had no mercy for me, his whole nature - 100% - was hatred to me. At one point, I realized I had no chance to run from him in the ring, it was useless. He will destroy me in a split second, tear me to pieces. And there is one way out - only attack him. A gift came, faith came, and in an instant I rushed at him in a furious rage, rushed to kill him, and woke up.

Today I think this is a state of faith in which we must walk. This is life on the edge, in the fury of the Lord. Only at this boiling point of fire can we overcome the whole world, overcome the devil himself. I think this is what the Apostle meant when he said: "Submit yourselves to God, resist the devil, and he will flee from you" (James 4:7).

He should be afraid of such a furious man! The day I saw this dream, in our congregation one pure, pious old woman, a prophetic woman, said: "Today I saw how you fought with Satan!" I thought, "Lord, this is really from You."

The Battle of the Saints with Satan

A battle with Satan is going on. Some people will rise up in the world, in the Body of Christ, who will fight straight against him. Those who will personally fight the devil must rise. They will act as part of the army of the Lord from Michael. Michael fought against Satan and against the angels of Satan and cast a third of them on earth.

We are connected with the heavens today. There are people who walk very high while living on earth. Jesus said that they are "sons of the resurrection" and can no longer die. Who was He talking about? - About us, living among people, but walking in the Spirit.

There are people who must rise more and more. The Body of Christ must welcome them. We need to see these people. I already feel in the Holy Spirit that they are rising. They will reveal the Son of God the way Paul revealed Him. They are fighting Satan himself and have an incredible, untold experience of fighting Lucifer. I believe that in the dream that I had about the devil it was exactly him, and I am involved in this battle.

Mystical Experience of the Saints –Encounters with the Lord

Some of God's people encountered Christ. I heard about Sundar Singh that when he was thrown off a high rock, a man came to him and gave him water to drink. He was lying all broken and was dying, but someone came near him and gave him water. And when Sundar drank from his hand, he saw the holes from the nails and realized that it was Christ Himself. It was not a vision, he actually drank from the hands of Christ.

Many saints had this kind of mystical experience. People like Francis even had stigmata. You can laugh at this, etc., but not me. We ought to receive from God whatever He wants to do.

There are more serious miracles than stigmata. I once had such an experience. I remember running home from a prayer meeting. I had a feeling that I was flying. Suddenly, all nature froze: as if every leaf was glazed, there was not a movement of breeze, it was as if I got into a vacuum. I didn't yet know how the glory of God can manifest. And then a man showed up. He turned and said, "Kill me." And there was no one in the street, I don't remember a single person along the entire street when we turned out alone with him. And immediately, from the first words, he began to talk about God. I was shocked. I saw Lucifer.

Since I was a new Christian and had no theological background on the topic - whether the devil can walk in the flesh - then I thought: "Is it really Lucifer himself?" I got scared. We spent the whole evening with him, and the further we went with him, the more I was amazed that it was a supernatural being, he seemed to read my mind.

I already shared this story, how he took the Bible, poked his finger at it, not looking at the Scripture, and then asked me questions that tore me apart, I couldn't answer them, because they were very difficult. I was single then, and he spent some time in my home, then he went home and I decided to see him off.

The next day I ran, bought some meat and thought, "I'll feed you now." I went to look for the apartment, where I took him, but, as it turned out, he didn't live there, everything had been changed ...

It happened several times in my life: the realm of spirits manifested strongly when Satan himself manifested. Not always, but most of the time. I realized that this had been a supernatural experience and that the Lord was giving me unique experiences in spiritual warfare.

Today I take it very seriously and continue taking it even more seriously every day, because I know how thoroughly he is hunting me.

I have already said once that I am “ordered”, I am “on the black list” of Satan, this “killer” is hunting me. Every day, every hour, he wants to kill me, and this is no joke. I don't know about you, you may have the same story or a different one, you know it. I testify of myself.

But God will be raising people, He wants to raise those who are fighting with Satan himself. They are fighting with Lucifer himself, they are in the army of Michael. I don't know how many there are or how many there should be, but I know that there are people who walk like sons of the resurrection.

The experience of the saints will become the experience of the Body of Christ

Some of them go through a hard journey, they overcome valleys of horror, valleys of darkness, gloom, passivity and depression, they keep fighting again and again, but this doesn't deprive them of their dignity. The Lord doesn't tear the stars off their epaulettes. They have to go through all of it in order, having done all, to stand.

To some extent, this is not only their personal experience, they are accumulating experience of the Body of Christ. Going through these valleys, valleys of suffering, they aren't supposed to feel lonely apart from the Body of Christ. They need to understand that they carry an empowerment the "corporate" experience of victory over Satan.

I feel this understanding of revelation –an experience that the Lord gives you, which seems negative to you, perhaps even, a failure to some extent - is very valuable for Christ when you are joined with the Body. Man can glorify the Lord even with his death, or he can also glorify Him with restoration after the fall. Peter demonstrated this with his return, Judas didn't handle this task.

Today, those must rise, who will fight personally with Satan as part of the army of the Lord from Michael.

Delusion of nations

In the contemporary great movement of history, there's another thing that is going to increase – it's the delusion of nations.

The Holy Spirit clearly says that there will be “work of delusion” and “people will believe the lie” (2 Thessalonians 2:11). The more the picture of the world is revealed, the more people believe the lie. This makes us wonder, because lie is disgusting, how can one believe in it?

It's not even about philosophy, materialism is what dominates today. It is written: “That they all be condemned who did not believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness (2 Thessalonians 2:11). They did not accept the truth and love of their salvation, therefore Satan will demonstrate a sign of the lie.

The Lord is preparing His saints to fight against Satan. Before the coming of Christ, all things will intensify. It will not happen that a “sluggish” church, having a “little peace” on earth, will suddenly go to Jesus. It is not true that we will have “everything fine”, there will be groceries in stores, a fairly good salary, and then Jesus will come for us and in this state of stagnation will take us to Him.

Everything will be “at its climax”. And we must now transit to where the Apostles lived. They lived on the edge, they didn't live relaxed. Do you understand? They weren't lying on the couch munching chips, reading the Bible and yawning. They lived on the edge!

The church must enter the risk zone and stay in the condition of tension, walking in fire. It's us who have to do it, by our own choice. This can be done in any situation, in any prosperous country, in any nation whether poor or rich - doesn't matter, it is our choice. It doesn't matter how good your clothes are or how good your home is, what matters is what's inside.

We make a decision - to live on the edge. When we are unwilling, God has to send circumstances to force us to walk in salvation. He is shifting the world picture and history to wake up the Bride. He starts waving, hitting canvases, clattering banners, rattling wheels, shaking the house, shaking the earth. God has to shake everything for the Bride to wake up!

Pressure on Israel

One more thing about the third stone. “In the days of Artaxerxes also, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabel, and the rest of their companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the letter was written in Aramaic script, and translated into the Aramaic language. Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes in this fashion:

From Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions—representatives of the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the people of Persia and Erech and Babylon and Shushan, the Dehavites, the Elamites, and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper took captive and settled in the cities of Samaria and the remainder beyond the River—and so forth.

(This is a copy of the letter that they sent him.) To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men of the region beyond the River, and so forth:

Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem, and are building the rebellious and evil city, and are finishing its walls and repairing the foundations. Let it now be known to the king that, if this city is built and the walls completed, they will not pay tax, tribute, or custom, and the king’s treasury will be diminished. Now because we receive support from the palace, it was not proper for us to see the king’s dishonor; therefore we have sent and informed the king, that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. And you will find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, and that they have incited sedition within the city in former times, for which cause this city was destroyed.

We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, the result will be that you will have no dominion beyond the River.” (Ezra 4: 7-16).

I want to say that the pressure on Israel has to increase even more. Although politicians are fighting to make things easier, I don’t believe they will achieve results. When the world community puts even more pressure on her, new technologies are determined against political Israel, but this will not do her any harm. Israel shall endure to fulfill the prophecy for good. She will continue to overcome.

Pressure on the Church

The church will also have to experience greater pressure: denunciations, evil reports, slander. The structures will have to increase the pressure on the Church of God, but this will subsequently release a true testimony of her strength and faithfulness.

Sincere devotees will recognize the genuine nature of the motives of the living Church of the Lord, its purity. The True Church will overcome and will prevail. Those who walk with Him walk in the light of His Face. They will overcome. It has always been the case that the more the Church is persecuted, the stronger it gets.

Genuine, recognized prophets and Apostles in the Body will proclaim the way and lead the people of God out of stagnation to victory. The voice of the prophets will lead God's people to action for complete victory. The glory of God will not depart from the holy people.

Today we are in the temptation of watching many churches being hesitant. Some prophets dare to say whether it's going to last long or not. I haven't gone into these areas. We are not fortune-tellers or foretellers. We understand God's ways, not events.

There are things that are not prophecies. They are more like "psychic predictions". But there is a genuine God's spirit of truth. We must overcome.

Holiness as a Sign of Truth

It is very important to understand that holiness stands today as a sign of truth. A church that doesn't have holiness will not have a sign that the church is true. In some churches you can't feel the spirit of holiness; on the contrary, you feel that you are getting weaker while being in this fellowship.

Other churches don't preach about holiness, but you go there and get sanctified. There are people who come to us and begin to confess, because they can't withstand the pressure of the holy fire of the holiness of God, they want to be cleansed, because they see the faith that they do not have.

Holiness stands as a sign of authenticity. There will be great significance and value of holiness in this church age. This is a sign. If the Church doesn't have the Holy Spirit and holiness, then there is no power there.

Pay attention to this! Holiness will be like a shield, a strength to endure in trials.

Love is a powerful weapon

And of course, holiness without love is not holiness, it is always joined with love. They are spliced into one, it is like two sides of one shield - holiness and love. Holiness without love is cruel, it is religious, merciless. But holiness and love should be together, and love is truly holy.

God's true love is holy. The significance of love among the people as a component in the Gospel outreach must rise. We must understand what is going to change. The preaching paradigm must shift towards love. I'm not talking about that strange smile: "Jesus loves you!" I am saying that the preaching should be more and more empowered with the river of love that leads to holiness.

Love will be a powerful weapon. The church today must recover, "stabilize" after the blow. There was a blow made, a knockdown, for someone even a knockout, some lost their people, it seems, hopelessly. But some other are still standing, though numb after the blow, the referee is still counting. You still have time to get back to your senses, you still have time to raise your fists. You still have time to say, "Yes, I continue!"

It is necessary to draw conclusions! Let's not let ourselves keep sitting, keep lying, let's not give a chance to convince us that our life is passing.

You know, there is the temptation of the old age: when a man gets old, he says: "What am I?! I'm an old man!" Never say that, because what you mean is not good for you. Ask the youth - what are they afraid of? They run away from sad old people. Why? Because they smell death, because a sad old man is very boring.

Do not accept any negativity stuff, do not accept defeat! You've got to rise, dust yourself off and run again! And don't say bad things about yourself, proclaim a blessing.

Make friends with young people. I will tell you a secret that there are friends around me who are inevitably getting old, but I am wise: I switched to young people and keep spending more time with them.

IV STONE

I believe that God continues to work with His Bride and prepares her no matter what is happening on the earth. Even in the most difficult times of shaking, there is a powerful global positive, building work of God going on for the Church. Whatever it may seem to us living on earth, joy reigns in heaven. It is written: "Therefore, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea!" (Revelation 12:12). Whatever happens to the earth, there is always joy in heaven. Those who dwell in heavens, rejoice! But to those who dwell on earth is woe.

Restoration of the Bride

Reinforcement is in progress. The Bride, leaving the coffin in which she slept, leaving the weeping of her parents and their inconsolable grief, rises to Christ. He says: "Give her something to eat!" She starts rising.

This restoration of the Bride is going on today through the anointing and the mantle of restoration. Christ said about Lazarus: "Our friend Lazarus sleeps, but I go that I may wake him up" (John 11:11). Jesus goes to wake up the nations. He's going to wake up the Bride among the nations.

In Christ's parable of the ten virgins, even five wise virgins fell asleep. Suddenly the virgins heard a voice that the Bridegroom was coming, and the wise arose and trimmed their lamps. The wise virgins didn't even need to wash, they were ready, but they "fell asleep" a little, because an atmosphere and context of strong pressure forced them to fall asleep.

But one sleep differs from another sleep. There is sleep in the vigil when you jump up at every rustle. This is how we should sleep. That is why we practice one of the martial arts of the spirit - sleep interruption. We need to be trained in the spirit in order to interrupt our sleep easily.

This is the art of leaving that dream about which it is written: "Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty; open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with bread." (Proverbs 20:13). Don't lie, don't skweak with the springs of the bed, get to love to be awake, love not sleep, but vigil, love not magic, but sacrament!

Christ said about Lazarus that he was sleeping, and the disciples picked it up: "Lord, if he sleeps, he will get well. However, Jesus spoke of his death, but they thought that He was speaking about taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus told them plainly: "Lazarus is dead" (John 11: 12-14).

Jesus spoke of the death of Lazarus as of sleep. The Lord sees His dead as those sleeping.

Raising an army of the "fallen away"

I believe that an army of people will arise, who now have completely disappeared. When I don't allow a person to rise up for fear that I myself will be defiled and fall, it means that I haven't grown at all, and I have no right to stand and preach the Word of God. "Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, and, as though God were pleading through us; we implore you on Christ's behalf: be reconciled to God" (2 Corinthians 5:20). This is the ministry of restoration.

The church today has to get clothed in the mantle of restoration. God will strongly anoint people who wear this mantle. This is not done because you are so good and kind and please everyone. It is a trap. You move in the Word, you take the "boats" of the Word of God and build up a man, give him wings. A powerful success awaits those who move in this mantle of restoration.

Restore people, don't turn your churches into "criminal structures", where the "crazy" pastor controls people, commands them, takes revenge, persecutes, gets into the wallets of God's people.

Step back, save yourself, and preach God's Word out of a saved spirit! Be warriors of light, not psychologists of darkness! Restore the saints, raise them up!

Jesus died, He shed His Blood – He paid a high price, not for us to manipulate His Blood. We must not deprive a single person of hope! The most "hopeless villain" at your "thorough search" must have hope. You can search it all, but don't take away the hope. Even if it already looks like a penknife. Leave hope for him, don't touch His hope. Hope remains with him, it is inviolable. He has a claim for it - the Calvary Cross of Christ.

Raise a measure of hope for the fallen, raise a measure of water, stop fighting and measuring strength with them, stop supporting competition and cultivating past offences. Call such a person, tell him: "I'm sorry." Build recovery.

Resurrection of the girl

Through the rise of the measure for the fallen, strengthening of the entire mantle will begin. This kind of churches will be successful. All this is the Bride rising out of the grave. All this is the girl who starts shaking.

I heard one testimony of resurrection in Africa. The dead man had been lying for many days when a preacher was brought to him. When the preacher began to pray, the dead rose back to life.... And all that was there in his insides, the resurrected erupted directly onto the evangelist's suit! Imagine what stench that was! It was terrible. But it was such a joy!

How badly would you dress to go to resurrect the dead?! What would you be willing to give to make the dead rise under your hands?

I am speaking to you of how the girl is going to be resurrected. It won't be pleasant, it won't be aesthetically nice. You may smell bad. You may not even recognize yourself.

Evan Roberts wrote that when you become a liberator for the soul, the first thing the devil will do is he will quarrel you with this person, attacking you through him. The devil will begin to manifest mentally to quarrel with you. But if you are a liberator and you know the spiritual battle, you will go beyond that and continue under the blows and slaps in the face: "It's all right, It's alright, sweetheart. You and I are going forward, we will be patient! "

Remember that the girl will not be rising back gently and beautifully. She will be shaken, she will emit stench, she will be hit by convulsions. I don't know to what extent the cadaveric poison took possession of this girl. I don't know if the cadaveric signs have already appeared on her face. Jesus was not interested in this, he was interested in the life that He will give in a few time.

This is a process. Jesus says, "I go that I may raise him." There will be connections in the mantle of restoration. Even outside the Church, we need to pour out mercy, especially outside of it. Look with light, look with purity and joyful love, to raise up the fallen.

Miracles of resurrection

The miracles of the resurrection as signs must return to the Church of God today.

Paul says that we must all come to the unity of the faith. This process is underway now. When you get in the air on an airplane, you see clearly what is happening there: there is a downpour, storm clouds are floating, lightning flashes. You pass this level, because modern technology allows you to cut through such unfavorable circumstances, and now you go to a higher level of the sky, passing through the thunderstorm, and up there it's quiet, blue sky and the sun. The question is one: it doesn't matter what kind of thunderstorm clouds hang over the area, the question is in the height to which you have risen. There are always restrictions in the form of thunderclouds at a height, but you pass through them, and above there is the sun.

Unity of knowledge of the Son of God

We need to dwell in the global context of prophecies. Jesus is coming, the White Horseman is rushing to the planet, He is returning. And this is how we must see the picture of the world. In this sense, there is a restoration of the unity of faith in the knowledge of the Son of God.

Today we know the Son of God in so different ways ... We talk about unity at conferences, at festivals of Jesus, all our programs - G-12, etc. - these abbreviations, are supposed to show our unity in faith, we unite, we "juggle" all into some things so that it sounds good ... But the ascent process continues - not all must unite, but the true Bride is to come into the unity of faith, the Perfect Man, in the knowledge of the Son of God, to the full measure of Christ's stature.

There were many girls in the village, but one was chosen by God to speak the word to Naaman. In other words, we need to raise the true Bride and say, "Feed her, for she is soon to be married!" Isn't that beauty? There, behind her parents, she must see her Bridegroom.

We have to understand that we are doing things not for the sake of something, but for higher goals. We are striving to where righteousness dwells. "That we should no longer be children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in the cunning craftiness of deceitful plotting, but speaking the truth in love may grow up in all things into Him who is the head - Christ" (Ephesians 4: 14-15). God is taking His people to the unity of faith. Not administrative unity, but spiritual.

Spiritual connections

Spiritual connections must be accomplished according to the order of Melchizedek. Abraham recognized at once that there was a Divine man before him, that there was a being before him. He didn't ask him for his passport, he didn't ask what denomination he belonged to, he didn't ask if he believed in the "seven mountains" or in the "seven pits", didn't ask what he believed in, he didn't ask if he spoke in tongues or what he thought of the leaders of the world community - he didn't ask about anything. He gave him the tithe because he had recognized him that the man was higher than himself. And, as if it were Levi himself in him, in the future twelve tribes, giving the tithe to the one in whom the Godhead is, in whom God is.

And the other gives him the entrance to the Kingdom through this gift, as Jesus gave the Apostles bread and wine and said: "This is My Body and My Blood."

This is how the connection should take place - in the spirit of the revelation of the Lord's love and truth. Prophetic sons are called to speak truthfully from God, regardless of faces and fears.

Empowering the Holy Remnant

It takes courage today to move in Jesus Christ. The holy remnant of the little flock must be reinforced in Jesus, that is why today we want to raise education and awareness in Church, but not in worldly education and awareness, but in what we need to know in order to be close to God and in order to overcome all the challenges that the world sets before us.

"Are you better than No Ammon, that was situated by the rivers, that had the waters around her..." (Nahum 3: 8). Which country is considered the best today? Many say: "We are the best!" Others: "No, we are the best!" "Look at our constitution, look at our democracy, look at our history, look - we have defeated those and these ...". This is technology, but God's people head to it, get carried away, instead of being established in the revelation sent by God.

Are you better than No Ammon? Listen, Russia, USA, Canada, Europe, etc., "that are situated by the rivers, that have the waters around them, whose rampart is the sea." See what a convenient location of states? "Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was boundless"... But "you will seek refuge from the enemy" (Nahum 3:8-9).

Are we now talking about earthly or heavenly? - There is a huge difference, these are two pictures, they are separated. Don't fall into what the Church has done today – the church has fallen into secularization. She connects things of heaven and things of the earth, she clothes Jesus in expensive brands, puts Him in a supercar, and He "preaches" under the flags of the states. These things are separated, and although we bring the heavenly on the earthly, we must understand these two pictures.

Paul writes that the Bride is rising, that we are coming to the unity of faith, we need to see this picture. We are called to bring this dimension to earth.

Desolation comes, destruction of the world's systems, and this is not surprising. We must observe these processes.

Fall of the kingdoms of the world

The strong, once unshakable structures of the world will fall suddenly, with lightning speed. Look: within one year people stopped trusting the government in many countries around the world. Megapolices have become the most dangerous place to live on earth. Unpredictable events will shock experts, analysts, politicians and specialists in religion, politics, sociology.

Those in power will get lost because of the coming events, because they will be unexpected. God says: "I will catch him like a thief. Suddenly he will be caught." And don't be surprised when this becomes the norm.

The fall in the image of countries and superpowers will occur in great force. They will be caught in public disgrace. This process will increase. This will cause repressions in many places, as well as the strengthening of totalitarian regimes. This is normal. This is the context in which we live, therefore "our Kingdom is not of this world."

When did Christ say these words? - When He was taken in Gethsemane. Here He stands, already surrounded by the enemies, a couple hours left before Golgotha. And He says: "My Kingdom is not of this world; if My Kingdom were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now My Kingdom is not from here" (John 18:36).

The Kingdom of God is not of this world

We are not an institution. We are not a structure in this world. We are not a house of prayer with more or less members. We are not chasing success as this world is chasing, to be great princes ruling over the nations.

Today we are the Body of Jesus Christ, who is coming for those whom He ordained before the creation of the world and placed with Him on the throne.

We are destined. We must keep the spirit of joining with the Son of God, with the Father, with the Holy Spirit and be heavenly people.

For yet a little while and even less. We live on this earth, but we gaze through the sky, through the clouds. What is happening on earth, what is shaking today is not surprising, this is normal environment, in which we were born and in which we are forced to exist.

We've got to take our own people with us, we've got to find the ones ordained, we've got to go with the torch and begin to proclaim the Light, so that those who hear the Voice of God come to life.

Christ said that the dead who hear the Voice of God will come to life. Make haste to run and look for your own people, because the Lord is coming! He is not coming to those who are sleeping. The True Bride is beginning to rise. This girl has a cold hand, but her cheeks are already turning red.

When the Lord began to visit Evan Roberts, they said that amazing things happened to him. If an average Christian were to look at Evan's experience of the Lord's presence, he would think those were demons. Evan was just "hit" with convulsions - and not only in the room, but also on the street when the Holy Spirit fell on him. It looked very unaesthetic. One of the pastors writes that when they prayed with him in the room, he wanted to run out: it was so unbearable to watch it. Evan's exalted prayer had no ethics or aesthetics. Those were terrible groans. That pastor also wrote that only the authority of Roberts' name stopped him so as not to leave him forever after what Evan had demonstrated in prayer.

What was it? - An open spirit. A wide opened spirit. Because "the flesh profits nothing." When Evan manifested God, it wasn't nice. I think that the resurrected girl didn't rise from her deathbed in a mannered pose of the Italian Baroque.

What was the most important thing? - That she was resurrected! We must feed this girl today. We must have food that will be life for her. Remember that this girl doesn't rise in a pleasant manner, she doesn't rise through our programs, she doesn't rise at our conferences, doesn't rise because of our sermons - she doesn't rise because of human things, she rises because of Him!

It is a process, and we need to open our eyes to watch and see it happening. This is the correct prophecy, these are the right things.

V STONE

Plumb line

"Thus He showed me: Behold, the Lord stood on a wall made with a plumb line, with a plumb line in His hand. And the Lord said to me: Amos, what do you see? And I said, "A plumb line" (Amos 7:7-8).

Lord, this is enough for me. I would like to call a spade a spade. There was a plumb line, and the prophet said it was a plumb line.

We need to learn to see things the way God sees them - to see what is in reality.

Who will say today what is happening in this world? About the pain of the planet, the picture of disasters.

But there is also another, bright side. Who will speak about the pulse of the Bride rising from the grave today? Who will say about the point in the Apocalypse - the Revelation of John - where we are in it? Who can poke a finger in the Word, precisely into that verse of Scripture where we are now in the books of the Old and New Testaments and the book of Revelation? We must say: "The Plumb line!"

"And the Lord said: " Behold, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of My people Israel; I will not pass them anymore. And the sacrificial heights of Isaac will be laid waste, and the sanctuaries of Israel will be destroyed, and I will rise up with the sword against the house of Jeroboam "(Amos 7: 8)

Look. That's it, the revelation is over. The prophet didn't move anything further. He heard the prophecy, and he didn't have any psychological training that there should be no negative things, that you need to have balance, because when it's negative, then for sure it is a false prophecy. He knew nothing about such psychological tricks. He took a pure prophecy of judgment and went with it.

"And Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words "(Amos 7:10). Those people could not listen to the prophecy. The church today is not able to listen to prophecy. She got relaxed on the kingdom kingdom she has created. And this will continue to happen - rejection of the prophets.

Rejection of True Prophets

Today is the time of rejection of the true prophets. True prophets have always been rejected. I remember talking with one of the Apostles, David Wilkerson, who came to Russia. He gave a prophecy in the 1970s, and a lot of what he said came true. He urged not to build prayer houses, because believers will not be able to gather in them. Imagine how these words sounded - many simply didn't believe that this was true, there was a strong construction movement, and many had the desire to have their own houses.

Today we see that the time has come when it is impossible to gather in them. Yes, not everything in his prophecies sounded true, but he was a man of God.

True prophets have always been rejected. When I first believed, I was accepted into Bert Klendennen's school. We were taught the ways of the Cross. The work of the Cross is what Jesus did for us, and the way of the Cross is what we do for Jesus. The main message of the whole school was the restoration of the essence of Pentecost through the Cross.

This is a very powerful, mighty message, it blows any man of the Cross. The Cross was the main stem of the School. Bert's message was that the Cross and the awakening are inseparable, they are joined into one; that the real awakening is not a religious activity, but a real awakening touches the deep essence of human conscience. Short term awakenings touch emotions, but long term awakenings touch conscience. He did a deepest research and connected the Pentecostal revival with the Cross, with the way of the Cross.

I thought the whole world knew Bert Klendennen. And then some of the Apostles came and we asked them, "Do you know Bert Klendennen?" But they never heard of him, although he preached in more than one hundred and fifty countries of the world, and thousands and thousands of pastors in closed countries such as Iran, and other countries of the Middle and Central East, in China, received a revival, restoration in the awakening of the Cross! But no one needed him in the modern generation of the so-called prophets ...

The plumb line was laid. Watch. The rejection of the prophets should not frighten us. Remember, the majority is the wrong way. It is dangerous to follow the majority and popularity.

Judgments will also be released for the wickedness of false prophets. Watch, just watch. The Lord said: "The high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise with the sword against the house of Jeroboam (Amos 7: 9).

God promises it in the Word - He shall judge false prophets and idolaters. And what we previously heard about the judgements, we will see with our own eyes. Persecutions will be raised against the faithful of God, but their victory will always be with them.
